2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner had illegally transported 4 units of lake sand in a vehicle bearing Registration No. TN 61 AA 9898 without any permit. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is an innocent person and he is no way connected with the alleged offence. He would also submit that without prejudice, the petitioner is prepared to deposit an amount of Rs.10,000/- as non- refundable deposit to any welfare scheme of the Government and he is prepared to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) for the respondent Police would submit that the petitioner had illegally transported 4 units of lake sand in a vehicle bearing Registration No.TN 61 AA 9898 without any permit. He would further submitted that the co-accused had already been arrested and released on bail. There is no previous case is pending against the petitioner. Hence, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
