2.The allegation against the petitioner is that this petitioner along with others had exploited the de-facto complainant-lady under the pretext of getting employment in Abroad. Hence the case.

3.The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He submits that he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and the petitioner has approached only seeking an employment to the de-facto complainant. He further submits that the co-accused had already granted anticipatory bail by this Court in Crl.O.P.No.17278 of 2025, dated 24.06.2025. He also submits that the petitioner is ready to abide by any condition that may be imposed by this Court and ready to furnish sufficient solvent sureties for his release. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submits that the petitioner along with other accused had exploited her under the guise of getting employment in Abroad. He further submits that the co-accused were arrested and released on bail. He further submits that the first accused is still in jail. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner herein.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6.Considering the aforesaid facts and circumstances of the case, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side and considering the fact that already co-accused were arrested and released on bail, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Pallavaram, Chengalpattu District, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.20,000/- (Rupees Twenty Thousand Only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition
