2. The case of prosecution is that on 04.07.2025, the de-facto complainant was released from judicial custody in a case of attempting to murder his wife, Ms.Poovizhi. On 05.07.2025, he went to his in-law's house to meet her. At that time, the petitioner, who is his father-in-law, allegedly came with a knife-like object, attacked the de-facto complainant on both legs, and threatened to kill him. Hence this complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for petitioner submitted that the petitioner has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for respondent would submit that there is some family dispute between the petitioner and the defacto complainant. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. However, he vehemently opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances and considering the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on executing separate bonds for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned

Judicial Magistrate, Vaniyambadi, and on further conditions that:

(a) the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(b) the petitioner is directed to report before the respondent police daily at 10.30a.m., until further orders. If he wishes to see the child, he is directed to approach the appropriate forum and seek visitation in the manner known to law, on every Saturday at 10.30a.m., for a period of eight weeks.

(c) the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;
