2.The case of the prosecution as per the defacto complainant is that on 07.07.2025, the petitioners blocked the way of the de-facto complainant's family, and during the wordy quarrel, the first petitioner pushed the de-facto complainant, causing a head injury. Hence, the case.

3.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that they have no way connected with the alleged occurrence and they have been falsely implicated in this case. However, the learned counsel, on instructions, further submits that the petitioners, without prejudice to his rights, are ready to deposit some amount to the credit of the crime number as imposed by this Court. Hence, the learned counsel prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) submits that the petitioners blocked the way of the de-facto complainant's family, and during the wordy quarrel, the first petitioner pushed the de-facto complainant, causing a head injury. However, he opposed for granting anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

period of fifteen (15) days and the defacto complainant is permitted to withdraw the said deposited amount on proper identification and acknowledgment.

(b)the petitioners and the sureties shall affix their photographs and left thumb impression in the surety bond and the Court concerned may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity;

(c)the petitioners are directed to appear before the respondent police every Saturday at 10.30 a.m until further orders;

(d)the petitioners shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial;

(e)the petitioners shall not abscond either during investigation or trial;

(f)on breach of any of the aforesaid conditions, the learned Magistrate/ Trial Court is entitled to take appropriate action against the petitioners in accordance with law as if the conditions have been imposed and the petitioners released on anticipatory bail by the learned Magistrate/Trial Court himself as laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in P.K.Shaji Vs. State of Kerala [(2005) AIR SCW 5560]; and;

(g)If the accused thereafter absconds, a fresh FIR can be registered under Section 269 of B.N.S.
