ORDER

This application has been filed seeking interim direction directing the 1st respondent / 1st defendant to produce all original documents of the properties purchased by the father of the applicant / plaintiff. But however, the list of such

2.It is the contention raised that the 1st defendant being the son of the family was in a position to secure the title documents of the properties of the father and therefore, by this application, the applicant seeks a direction for the 1st defendant to produce the original.

3.It would be helpful if the list of documents had been given as the 1st defendant cannot go around searching and assume the nature of documents required by the applicant. Even otherwise, it would only be prudent that a notice to produce documents is first issued to the 1st defendant and thereafter, the matter is taken up through its logical conclusion.

4.Observing as above, this application stands closed with liberty to proceed further in manner known to law relating to production of documents.
