2. After arguing for some time, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission of this Court to withdraw this writ petition with liberty to file appeal before the appellate authority. He has also made an endorsement to that effect.

3. Further, the learned counsel would submit that entire tax amount has been paid by the petitioner.

4. The learned Additional Government Pleader (Taxes) appearing for the respondents also fairly submitted that the entire tax amount has been recovered and hence the prayer made by the petitioner may be considered.
