2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant are students. Due previous enmity, the petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant with blade. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner states that the petitioner is an innocent person and has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is a student and there is no specific overtact against this petitioner. Hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that A1 was arrested and released on bail and the injured is still in hospital. Hence, he opposed to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.
