2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused, who is a co-passenger of a de facto complainant, had taken a photograph of the de facto complainant during her bus travel and disseminated it in his WhatsApp group. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that the photograph taken by the accused was deleted by the de facto complainant's husband and further, the mobile phone of the accused is now in the respondent's custody and there is no previous case against him.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
