This Petition has been filed seeking to punish the respondents for having violated the

2.While allowing the above said Writ Petition, this Court set aside the impugned orders passed by the respondents and directed the respondents to accord notional promotion and other consequential benefits and settle the retirement benefits and revise the pension of the petitioner within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of the order.

3.During the course of hearing today, Mr.M.Sureshkumar, learned counsel for the respondents has placed a copy of the Government Order issued in G.O.(2D) No.391, Revenue and Disaster Management Department, Services Wing, Ser.2(1) Section dated 12.06.2025 and would submit that the order of the Court has been complied with by issuing the said Government Order.

5.The learned counsel for the petitioner has also endorsed the same. However, there was a delay in implementing the order of this Court.

As such, he submits that there was no huge delay in implementing the order and the limited delay occurred due to the administrative reasons in
