140(4), 191(2), 191(3), 296(b) and 351(3) of BNS, 2023 (307, 367, 147, 148, 294, 506 of IPC) in connection with Crime No.280 of 2025, registered on the file of the respondent, seek bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on the date of occurrence, the de-facto complainant was sitting near a tea shop, at that time the petitioners along with other accused joined together attacked the de-facto complainant with beer bottles, kidnapped the de-facto complainant and further assaulted him and escaped from the place. Due to the attack, the de-facto complainant sustained injuries and admitted in the hospital. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners are innocent persons and they have not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution. The de-facto complainant had a love affair with one Shakila and continuously tortured her to love him, which was questioned by the petitioners, hence, the petitioners have been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, prays to grant bail to the petitioners.

4.The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police submitted that A1 and one Shakila had a love affair, later it was broken up. The de-facto complainant entered into a relationship with the very same girl. Hence, a quarrel arose between A1 and de-facto complainant, due to which, the petitioners along with other accused joined together attacked the de-facto complainant with beer bottles, kidnapped the de-facto complainant and further assaulted him and escaped from the place. He further submitted that the injured now discharged from the hospital.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on their executing separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) each, with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
