2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused was found to be in illegal possession of 1.250 kilograms of Ganja. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the recovered contraband is an intermediate quantity. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and hence, he prayed for grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner. He also submitted that the petitioner hails from the State of Bihar and that the petitioner has no previous case against him.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the nature of allegation and the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties (out of which, one shall be the blood related surety and the
