there are arguable points available in the Criminal Appeal and the petitioner/A3 has got a fair chance of succeeding in the Criminal Appeal and hence, the substantive sentence imposed against the petitioner/A3 may be suspended. He would submit that the petitioner is ready to abide the condition imposed by this Court.

4. Per contra, the learned Special Public Prosecutor for NCB appearing for the respondent raised serious objection for allowing this petition. Further, he would contend that the evidences recorded from the prosecution witnesses would prove the case of the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt. According to him, interference of this Court is not necessary in the findings arrived at by the trial Court.

5. Heard the learned counsel appearing on either side and also perused the materials placed on record.

was seized. However, there is no recovery from the petitioner and he has been implicated as an accused only on the call details and images.

(ii) On such deposit being made, the trial Court shall redeposit the said amount in a Fixed Deposit Account, in any one of the Nationalized Banks, renewable thereafter periodically. The disbursal of this
