3. The very allegation of the petitioner in the complaint indicate that it is purely a civil dispute and there are transactions between them. It is also stated in the complaint that a Civil Suit is pending between the parties. Hence, this Court is of the view that merely because the First Information Report has not been registered for the relief as required by the petitioner, it cannot be said that investigation has not been done. In such view of the matter, let the investigating Officer conduct investigation in a fair manner and register the First Information Report, only if any cognizable offence is made out and proceed as per law.
