2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused had waylaid the de facto complainant, abused him and robbed a sum of Rs.2500/- and a mobile phone from him at knife point and also threatened him with dire consequences. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners is that the petitioners/A1 & A2 are innocent and have been falsely implicated in this case since they have several previous cases. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail to the petitioners.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for the grant of bail to the petitioners stating that against the first petitioner/A1, 4 previous cases are pending and in respect of A2, two previous cases are pending.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, nature of allegations, submissions made by the learned counsels on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
