JUDGMENT

S.M.SUBRAMANIAM,J.

The order passed by the General Manager, District Industries Centre dated 11.01.2012 was under challenge in the writ proceedings before the learned single Judge.

2. An Industrial plot was allotted to the appellant and he committed default in repayment. Action was taken by taking possession. The respondents provided an opportunity to settle the dues and the appellant failed. Thereafter, the proceedings of the District Industries Centre came to be challenged. The allotment was made admittedly, through the 3rd respondent, which is the Co-operative Societies, registered under the provisions of Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act. Since the dues are to be recovered through the Cooperative Society and the appellant being a member, the dispute is to be adjudicated before the competent authority under the Tamil Nadu Cooperative Societies Act. Section 90 of the Act provides for resolving the disputes and the learned single Judge also reiterated that the petitioner has to exhaust the remedy contemplated under the Tamil Nadu Societies Act.

3. Disputed issues relating to loan transaction cannot be adjudicated in writ proceedings by the High Court. Such adjudication requires scrutinization of original documents and evidences. Therefore, the appellant has to approach the competent authority under the Tamil Nadu Co-operative Societies Act for effective adjudication of issues. Thus, this Court does not find any infirmity in respect of the writ order impugned and consequently, the same stands confirmed and the Writ Appeal is dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
