JUDGMENT

When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the appellant submits that he is not ready and thereby, seeks time.

2. Even on earlier occasion, the learned counsel for the appellant was not ready and thereby, the matter was listed under the caption 'For dismissal'. However, the learned counsel for the appellant took two more adjournments. Today, again the learned counsel for the appellant seeks short accommodation. This Court is not inclined to grant further time as sought for by the learned counsel for the appellant.

3. In the result, this Appeal Suit is dismissed as default. Consequently, the connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed. No costs.
