3. It is further submitted that the accused has cheated not only the petitioner, but also several other persons. In this regard, cases have been registered, and the connected FIRs are pending before the Economic Offences Wing.

4. In such view of the matter, this Court directs that the complaint filed by the petitioner in Crime No.111 of 2024 shall also be taken note of by the EOW while filing the final report, along with other FIRs. The FIR in Crime No.111 of 2024 may also be clubbed together with the connected pending matters, or in the alternative, the petitioner may be arrayed as one of the witnesses in the said cases.

5. With the above directions, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
