2. The case of the prosecution is that on 24.05.2025, in the absence of the de-facto complainant, her daughter went to the house of the petitioner. When the de-facto complainant later found her daughter in the petitioner's house, she discovered that her daughter is being sexually abusing by the petitioner. She shouted at the petitioner, warned him dare consequence and immediately rescued her daughter. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person, he has not committed any offence as alleged by the prosecution and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.
