4. I have heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and I have also gone through the grounds of challenge and also the order of the trial court.

5. On a perusal of the order impugned, I do not find any perversity or infirmity in the order of the Trial court, dismissing the petitioner's impleading application and thereby, this Court is not inclined to interfere with the same.

6. However, as contended by the learned counsel for the petitioner, the suit cannot be effectively disposed of in the absence of the records which are vital and absolutely necessary for testing the respective contentions of the parties.

7. In view of the above, this Court grants liberty to the petitioner to
