COMMON ORDER

(Order of the Court was made by S.M.SUBRAMANIAM,J.)

The show cause notices issued under Rule 330 of the Tamil Nadu Urban Local Bodies Rules, 2023 are under challenge in the present writ proceedings.

2. No writ against a show cause notice is entertainable in a routine manner. A writ petition against show cause notice is entertainable only if

3. In the present cases, the petitioners would submit that necessary permission was granted by the municipal authorities. Therefore, the show cause notices are invalid.

4. The learned Standing Counsel for the Corporation would submit that though permission was granted to install the hoardings, the petitioners violated the conditions stipulated in the licence(s). Therefore, the authorities are empowered to remove the hoardings by issuing show cause notice(s).

W.P.Nos.27607 & 30609 of 2024

5. In view of the above submission, the petitioners are at liberty to submit their explanation to establish that they have not violated any of the rules or conditions stipulated in the licence(s), within a period of seven days from today. On receipt of any such explanation from the petitioners, the respondent shall consider the same with reference to the rules and the licence conditions and pass final orders within a period of ten days from the date of expiry of seven days. If the hoardings are found to be violative of the rules or the licence conditions, then the authorities shall remove the hoardings forthwith. With these observations, both the writ petitions are disposed of. Consequently, W.M.P.Nos.30126, 30127 & 33214 of 2024 are closed. No order as to costs.
