2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused was found to be in illegal possession of 50 grams of ganja and 11 bottles of liquor (180ml).

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and has been falsely implicated in this case since he has several previous cases. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner stating that the petitioner is a habitual offender having 15 previous cases.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner and the quantity of contraband seized from the petitioner/accused, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with
