2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioners along with other accused unlawfully assembled and were making preparations for committing dacoity. Hence the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners is that the petitioners are innocent persons and have been falsely implicated in this case, since they have got previous cases. He further submitted that the petitioners are ready to abide by any conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioners stating that there are totally three accused in this case, the first petitioner/A3 is having 3 previous cases and petitioner/A4 is having one previous pending against them.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioners, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail on
