2. The case of the prosecution is that the accused were found to be in illegal possession of 202.500 kilograms of banned tobacco products and 6.480 litres of Karnataka state liquor. Hence, the case.

3. The contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner is that the petitioner is innocent and working as a driver, however, he has been falsely implicated in this case. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court and that without prejudice to defence, he is prepared to deposit considerable amount to any charitable Organization or Association. Hence, he prayed for the grant of bail.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed for granting bail to the petitioner stating that the second accused in this case is still absconding. He further submitted that the petitioner/A1 hails from the State of Rajasthan and there is no previous case against him.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the submission made by the learned counsel appearing on either side and taking note of the period of incarceration undergone by the petitioner, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.
