It is seen that even after three phases of counselling, candidate was not allotted for one seat. Therefore, the petitioner admitted one eligible candidate under lapsed seat category and requested the authorities to approve and ratify the same. However, no order was passed. Therefore, the petitioner preferred writ petition in WP.No.693 of 2022 for approval of one candidature for admission to BAMS Degree Course 2020-2021 and this Court allowed the writ petition on 13.05.2022.

4. Heard, the learned counsel appearing on either side and perused, all the materials placed before this Court.

5. On perusal of records, it is revealed that this petitioner already filed writ petition for approval of the candidature of the candidate and this Court allowed the same by order dated 13.05.2022. Further, no appeal was preferred against the order passed in the said writ petition. As such, the matter reached finality. Now, this writ petition has been filed for direction to approve the regularisation of candidature. As such, this court is inclined to direct the respondents as follows: The respondents are
