Challenging the impugned order dated 23.04.2025 passed in Crl.M.P.No.8715 of 2024 in S.T.C.No.1504 of 2021 by the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Cuddalore, the petitioner preferred this Criminal Revision Case.

2.Before the Trial Court, the petitioner/accused filed a petition under Section 94 of BNSS, praying to summon the respondent to produce the documents, i.e., two original title documents, two blank cheque leaves and one blank Promissory Note and the same was contested by the respondent.

3.The learned Magistrate on considering the oral and documentary evidence dismissed the petition as no merit. Challenging the same, the present revision has been filed.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that those documents are relevant to prove her defence. The petitioner's husband was a close friend to the respondent and at the time of borrowal of loan by the respondent, those documents given have not been handed over to her husband who is already known to him.

5. On perusal of the documents, it is seen that the trial began on 18.08.2023 and sixteen hearings have been taken by the petitioner accused. Thereafter, the said petition has been filed. If at all any document is filed to prove her defence, she has to sought for those documents by giving notice to the defacto complainant, instead of that, she sought for unnecessary adjournments before the Trial Court. Therefore, she did not co-operate with the Court proceedings.

Hence, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of. If at all any document is to be filed, she is directed to issue notice to the defacto complainant as per the manner known to Law and thereafter, proceed with the matter.
