Challenging the docket Order of the learned XVII Judicial Magistrate Saidapet, Chennai in cancelling the bail granted to the petitioner/accused by dismissing the petition filed by the petitioner under section 355 of BNSS, the present Criminal Original Petition has been filed.

2. The accused is facing trial in C.C.No.1657 of 2024 before the XVII Judicial Magistrate, Saidapet for the alleged offences under sections 294[b], 354 and 506[ii] IPC. When the matter was posted for trial and P.W.1 and P.W.2 were present, the accused filed a petition under section 355 of BNSS for dispensing their personal appearance. Therefore, the trial Court had dismissed the petition filed under 355 of BNSS and by cancelling the bail granted to the accused, issued Non bailable warrant to the accused. The trial Court also closed the cross examination of P.W.1 and P.W.2 and the matter has been adjourned. Challenging the said Order, the present Criminal Original Petition has been filed.

3. At the outset, this Court is of the view that without hearing the parties, the bail already granted to the petitioner cannot be cancelled. Be that as it may.

The accused had already filed a petition under section 355 of BNSS. In such case, the trial Court ought to have granted an opportunity to the petitioner to cross examine the witnesses. In such view of the matter, the docket Order of the trial Court dated 28.07.2025 has to be set aside. The trial Court shall recall the warrant, if any, already issued against the petitioner and fix a date for cross examination of P.W.1 and P.W.2 and the witnesses shall be recalled and the accused shall cross examine the witnesses on the date fixed by the trial Court and complete the cross examination on that date itself. In the event, the accused failed to cross examine the witnesses on the same day, they will lose the right of cross examination of the witnesses.

4. With the above directions, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the docket Order of the trial Court in C.C.No.1657 of 2024 dated 28.07.2025 is set aside.
