BNS, 2023 and Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act and Section 67 of Information Technology Act, in Crime No.34 of 2025, registered on the file of the respondent, seeks bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that one Arati, aged about 22 years, lodged a complaint with the respondent police on 08.07.2025, alleging that the petitioner herein came into contact with her through Instagram and both were in love. Later, the petitioner left her and went back to his native place in Bihar. After about 5 months, when he returned and pressurised her to marry, she refused. In this connection, she went to the police station to lodge a complaint. When the police called the petitioner for enquiry, the petitioner attempted to commit suicide using a knife, during which a police personnel at the station, while trying to prevent him, sustained injuries. Hence the complaint.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that it was a love affair between the defacto complainant and the petitioner. Due to sudden rejection by the defacto complainant, the petitioner got frustrated and attempted to commit suicide. The complaint itself, according to the counsel, reveals that that they were in love and had engaged in consensual sexual relations. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and opposed the grant of bail to the petitioner. He further submitted that the petitioner, who belongs to Bihar, had come to threaten the defacto complainant and force her to marry him. Consequently, he attempted to harm himself and in the process, a police personnel, while trying to prevent him, sustained injuries.

5. Heard both sides and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of the complaint and the injury sustained, which is simple in nature, this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner, subject to certain conditions.

7. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on his executing a separate bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the
