2. In the affidavit filed in support of the Judges Summons, it had been stated that the husband of the deponent of the affidavit had been admitted to the hospital and therefore, she and her sister were running from the hospital to home and back and in that process, they were not in a position to give necessary instructions to the learned counsel.

3. Heard the leaned counsel for the plaintiff also.

4. Taking all factors into consideration, this application stands allowed and the delay is condoned. The written statement is taken on file.
