2. The case of the prosecution is that due to pathway dispute, petitioners along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant using wooden log, due to which, defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners states that the petitioners is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case and hence, he prayed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the injured victim has been discharged from the hospital. However, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioners.

5. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

6. Considering the nature of offence and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioners is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.
