2. The case of the prosecution is that due to previous enmity, petitioner along with other accused attacked the defacto complainant, due to which, defacto complainant sustained injuries. Hence, the case.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) submitted that the injured victim has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he opposed for grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Heard the learned counsels on either side and perused the materials available on record.

5. Considering the nature of offence and since, custodial interrogation of the petitioner is not required, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, on or before 23.08.2025 before the learned Additional District Munsif Cum Judicial Magistrate, Ambur, on condition
