ORDER

This writ petition has been filed challenging the assessment order dated 15.07.2024 and the appeal rejection order dated 06.05.2025 passed by the respondents.

case, a show cause dated 17.02.2022 was issued to the petitioner. Since all the notices/communications were uploaded under the "View Additional Notices" column in the GST portal, the petitioner was not aware of the same and thus, failed to file a reply. Under these circumstances, the impugned assessment order dated 15.07.2024 came to be passed by the first respondent, without providing any opportunity of personal hearing to the petitioner. Thereafter, the appeal against the aforesaid assessment order was preferred by the petitioner with a delay of 12 days. Since the delay was beyond the condonable period, the second respondent rejected the same vide impugned rejection order dated 06.05.2025, on the ground of limitation. Hence, he prayed to condone the delay in filing the appeal on any terms including any condition of additional pre-deposit and he has also made an endorsement to that effect in the case bundle.

4. On the other hand, the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents would submit that the delay, in filing the appeal, has occurred only due to the fault on the part of the petitioner and

5. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents and also perused the materials available on record.

6. In the case on hand, the assessment order came to be passed by the first respondent on 15.07.2024. Aggrieved over the same, an appeal was preferred by the petitioner on 27.11.2024, i.e., with a delay of 12 days. Since the delay was beyond the condonable period, the said appeal was rejected by the second respondent vide impugned order dated 06.05.2025, on the ground of limitation. According to the petitioner, since they were not aware of the assessment order, they are not in a position to file the appeal within time.

7. The above reason assigned by the petitioner, for the delay in filing the appeal against the assessment order, appears to be genuine. In such view of the matter, this Court is inclined to condone the delay, in filing the appeal against the assessment order, on terms.

8. Therefore, though the petitioner had already paid 10% of the disputed tax amount as pre-deposit while filing the appeal, considering the delay of 12 days, this Court directs the petitioner to pay additional 5% of the disputed tax amount, as agreed by the petitioner, to the respondents. Accordingly, this Court passes the following order:

i) The impugned rejection order dated 06.05.2025 is set aside and the delay of 12 days in filing the appeal before the Appellate Authority is condoned, subject to the payment of additional 5% of the disputed tax to the respondents as agreed by the petitioner, within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. The setting aside of the impugned order will take effect from the date of payment of the said amount.

ii) Upon such payment made by the petitioner, the second respondent/Appellate Authority is directed to take the appeal on record and pass appropriate orders on merits and in accordance with law, after providing an sufficient opportunity to the petitioner, as expeditiously as possible.

With the above directions, this writ petition is disposed of. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
