2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner states that the petitioner is an innocent person and she has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

3. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police opposed for grant of bail on the ground that the petitioner is having eight previous cases, out of which, four cases under NDPS Act and other four cases are under Prohibition Act.

4. However, considering the fact that this petitioner is being a lady and she is in prison for 24 days, , this Court is inclined to grant bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail on her executing a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees Twenty Five Thousand only) with two sureties, each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the learned Judicial Magistrate-I, Thiruvannamalai District, and on further conditions that:
