The petitioner/A1 has filed a petition u/s.91 of Cr.P.C., before the trial court in CrI.M.P.No.81 of 2025 seeking original documents of the entire ledger book with respect to Ex.D.1 (Recurring deposit ledger documents containing only 3 pages along with the voter list pertaining to the Perambur Constituency) to support her defence case. The learned trial judge, dismissed the petition holding that the documents sought for in the petition are public documents and without adopting the legal recourse, the petition was filed and allowing of the petition would lead to stalling of case proceedings.

sought to be summoned. The entire documents sought to be summoned is without indicating the nature of the document as to what way it is relevant to the case. In such a view of the matter, if the petitioner wants to examine any witness in this regard, he can very well summon the same from the concerned department to produce the document and he can take out the summons to examine the witnesses for production of the document and examine them. Mere summoning of production of entire original documents will not be helpful to the case.

5. With the above direction, this Criminal Original Petition is disposed of.
