2. The allegation is that this petitioner and his wife induced the defacto complainant that she will get 14% interest if she invests money in HNFS Trading, which is a share trading Company. Based on which, the defacto complainant issued cheques to the petitioner and his wife for a sum of Rs.47,50,000/- and a sum of Rs.5,00,000/- in cash as such in total a sum of Rs.52,50,000/- was paid. Further, her sister's husband also gave a sum of Rs.13,00,000/-. After depositing the money, she did not had any benefit and had lost all of her money. Hence, the case.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner/A2 is an innocent person and that the accused 3 and 4 were already granted bail by the lower Court and he has been falsely implicated in this case. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the respondent police, reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that so far no amount has been recovered. Hence, he opposed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

5. Heard both sides including counsel for Intervenor Petitioner and perused the materials available on record.
