2. I allowed the revisions after hearing both sides with the following condition:

“4.The defendant disputes only the interest amount payable, but has not disputed the principal. Therefore, I feel interest of justice will be served, if the defendant is directed to deposit the principal amount in each of the suits to the credit of respective cases. defendant is entitled to file a written statement and contest the suit on merits. In case, the principal amounts are not deposited within the aforesaid period, the revisions shall stand dismissed.”

3. Imposing the similar condition in the present case, the Civil Revision Petition is allowed. Needless to add, once leave to defend is granted, the decree that had been passed on the date of dismissal of the leave to defend applications will automatically fall to the ground on compliance with the present order. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petition stands closed.
