ORDER

This writ petition has been filed challenging the impugned proceedings of the 1st respondent dated 12.02.2024 under Section 7Q of the EPF and MP Act, 1952 and the impugned prohibitory order dated 18.07.2025 issued by the 2nd respondent and for a direction to permit the petitioner to pay the balance amount in five monthly installments and to allow the petitioner to operate the bank account.

2. Heard Mr.A.Deivasigamani, learned counsel for the petitioner and Mr.W.M.Abdul Majeed, learned Standing counsel for Respondents 1 to 3 and Mr.R.Sreedhar, learned counsel for 4th respondent.

3. The petitioner has an effective alternative remedy of filing an appeal before the Central Government Industrial Tribunal, Chennai. The Tribunal also has the power to condone the delay in filing the appeal and also to waive the deposit of 75% amount which is made mandatory for entertaining the appeal. In view of the same, this Court cannot entertain the present writ petition.

4. The learned counsel submitted that the bank account of the petitioner has been freezed and therefore, the functioning of the organization has come to a stand still.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and considering the grievance expressed by the petitioner, in order to strike a balance, there shall be a direction to the petitioner to deposit 50% out of the total demand made, by giving credit to the amount that has already been paid / deposited by the petitioner. On such deposit, the bank account of the petitioner shall be de-freezed.

6. The petitioner shall file the appeal before the Central Government Industrial Tribunal within a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of the copy of this order. The Industrial Tribunal shall deal with the appeal on its own merits and in accordance with law, after condoning the delay. Insofar as the pre-deposit is concerned, since this Court has directed the petitioner to deposit 50%, that shall be treated as sufficient compliance provided that the petitioner complies with this direction. The Tribunal shall dispose of the appeal on its own merits and in accordance with law, within a period of 12 weeks from the date of filing of the appeal. This will be subject to the condition that the petitioner deposits the amount as was directed by this Court.

7. This writ petition is disposed of with the above directions. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
