... Respondent(s)

Prayer: Writ Petition filed under Article 226 of the Constitution of India, praying to issue a writ of Mandamus, to direct the respondents to pay interest for the belated payment of provident fund death cum retirement gratuity encashment of earned leave surrender leave and commuted value of pension at the rate of 12% per annum within the time frame fixed by this Hon'ble Court and pass.

For Petitioners	: Mr.N.K.Ponraj
For Respondent	: Mr.M.Murali Vinodh Standing Counsel (For R1 to R3)

COMMON ORDER

Mr.M.Murali Vinodh, learned Standing Counsel takes notice on behalf of the respondent. By consent of both parties, the present writ petition is taken up for final disposal at the stage of admission itself.

2. The petitioners have filed this writ petition to issue a Writ of

W.P.No.33154 of 2025

Mandamus, directing the respondents herein to pay interest for the belated payments made to them in respect of Provident Fund, Death Cum Retirement Gratuity (DCRG), Commuted Amount, Provident Fund Amount and Earned Leave Amount.

3. The petitioners were retired from service on the same day i.e., on 30.06.2023 as Senior Tradesman, Painter, Senior Tradesman and Sweeper respectively. However, the respondents paid the retirement benefits belatedly only on 16.04.2025, after a lapse of 21 months from their respective dates of retirement.

4. The case of the petitioners is that though they retired from service on 30.06.2023, the respondents failed to settle the retirement benefits on the due dates, citing paucity of funds. The petitioners would further state that they are entitled to receive retirement benefits on the date of retirement itself and that due to the delay, their families were put to serious hardship and prejudice. Even after repeated representations, requesting interest on the belated settlement, the respondents have not taken any steps to pay the same. Hence, the present writ petition has been filed.

W.P.No.33154 of 2025

5. When the matter is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the petitioners brought to the notice of this Court the order passed by the Co-ordinate Bench of this Court in a similar matter in W.P.No.25610 of 2024 dated 03.09.2024, wherein this Court had directed the respondent to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. for the belated payment of terminal benefits to the petitioner therein within a period of six (6) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. Learned counsel appearing for the respondents did not dispute the above submission made by the learned counsel for the petitioners.

7. This Court perused the order passed in W.P.No.25610 of 2024, wherein, this Court has held as under :-

“5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and the grievance expressed by the petitioner, there shall be a direction to the respondent to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. for the belated payment of terminal benefits to the petitioner within a period of six (6) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that if the amount is not paid within the time frame fixed by this Court, it will fetch interest at the rate of 12% p.a. from the date on which the amount became due and payable till the date of actual realisation.”

W.P.No.33154 of 2025

WEB COPY 8. The aforesaid decision is squarely applicable to the facts of the present case. Accordingly, applying the ratio laid down in the above case, this Writ petition stands disposed of with a direction to the respondents to pay interest at the rate of 6% p.a. for the belated payment of terminal benefits such as, Provident Fund, Gratuity, Pension commutation and Earned Leave amount to the petitioners within a period of eight (8) weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that, if the amount is not paid within the time frame fixed by this Court, it will fetch interest at the rate of 9% p.a. from the date on which the amount became due and payable till the date of actual realisation. There shall be no order as to costs.
