Standing Counsel

3. The petitioners made several requests/representations to the respondents to pay the amounts, but the respondents have failed to do so.

The respondents are liable to pay an amount of Rs.26,796/- to the first petitioner, Rs.38,354/- to the second petitioner, Rs.22,668/- to the third petitioner, Rs.7,707/- to the husband of the fourth petitioner and Rs.23,850/- to the husband of the fifth petitioner, towards encashment of earned leave surrendered by them. Hence, the petitioners have sent their individual representations to the respondents to pay the amounts which are liable to be paid by the respondents. Even thereafter also, the respondents have failed to pay the amounts to the petitioners, for which, they are legally entitled to. Hence, the petitioners have filed the present Writ Petition.

4. The learned counsel for the petitioners submitted that it would be suffice if this Court issues a direction to the respondents to consider the petitioners' representations and pass orders.

5. The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents submitted that the representations of the petitioners will be considered and the respondents will pay the eligible amount with 6% interest per annum, as per the earlier orders of this Court.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, there shall be a direction to the respondents/Corporation to pay the eligible amount as payable to the petitioners along with interest at the rate of 6% per annum for the delay period in settling the said amounts. This payment shall be made within a period of 12 weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. It is made clear that if the amounts are not paid within the time frame fixed by this Court, it will fetch interest at the rate of 12% per annum from the date on which the amounts became due and payable till the date of actual realisation.

7. With the above directions, these Writ Petitions stand disposed of.

There shall be no order as to costs
