ORDER

The allegation of the prosecution in this case is that on 17.07.2009 at about about 10.00 am, near the Agaram Anju temple, when the defacto-complainant was walking on his way, one of the accused waylaid the defacto-complainant, abused him with filthy language, brandished knife and snatched the chain. However, the public gathered and both the accused were arrested by the police and the chain was recovered from them. The motor cycle in which they were travelling was also brought to the police station and upon which, a case in Crime No.281 of 2009 for the alleged offences under Section 341, 336, 392, 397 and 506 (ii) of IPC was registered.

2. After completion of investigation, an absconding charge sheet was filed as against the accused No.2, while the accused No.1 alone appeared. The said charge sheet was taken on file as P.R.C.No.14 of 2010. Thereafter, the case was split up against the absconding accused and is now pending in P.R.C.No.88 of 2018. As far as the accused No.1 is concerned, S.C.No.399 of 2018 was taken up for trial.

3. As a matter of fact, the defacto-complainant as well as his wife had passed away. After examination of all the other witnesses, for want of evidence, the case against the 1st accused was acquitted. In the meanwhile, the case against the 2nd accused is pending for the past 15 years and the petitioner – Police is unable to execute the warrant. The whereabouts of the 2nd accused is not known. Even his identity is doubted.

4. In view of the acquittal of the case on merits, as against the accused No.1, no useful purpose will be served by keeping the matter pending and by executing the NBW, anytime hereafter also. The occurrence was happened in the year 2009 and after the final report is filed, the matter is pending from the year 2010, for the past 15 years.

5. In view thereof, this is a fit case for exercise of power under Section 482 of Cr.P.C., and accordingly P.R.C.No.88 of 2018 shall stands quashed and the Suo Motu Transfer Case stands allowed.
