ORDER

This C.C.No.110 of 2016 is filed for the alleged offences under Sections 294(b), 324 and 506(ii) of the Indian Penal Code. Now, the case is pending for execution of non-bailable warrant.

2. The occurrence happened on 16.08.2014. The allegation is that the accused, Manivel, picked up quarrel with P.W.1/de facto complainant and abused him in filthy language and attacked him with a knife. On the strength of the said allegations, a case in Crime No.82 of 2014 was registered and thereafter, a Final Report was filed. It is now stated that the de facto complainant also died. The wife of the de facto complainant was produced virtually. Upon enquiry, it is stated by the petitioner Police that the accused old mother, aged 68 years alone, is residing in the village. The accused had long back left the village by stating that he is going abroad. The poor old lady does not know about his whereabouts. He never got married and never came back to the village. His whereabouts are completely unknown till date. The efforts of the petitioner Police for the past 11 years have not fructified to trace him out.

3. Considering the nature of allegations, the de facto complainant's wife, who is present before the Court virtually, submits that they have put the incident past behind them long back and the case can be closed. No useful purpose will be served to keep the matter pending as the accused has permanently gone from the village and is unheard off for the past 12 years.

4. Considering all the above and the nature of allegations, I am of the view that this is a fit case for exercise of power under Section 482 of the Code of Criminal Procedure. Accordingly, the case in C.C.No.900110 of 2016 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate Court No. II, Ariyalur Taluk,
