COMMON ORDER

This is a common order passed in two C.C.'s in C.C.No.85 of 2020 and C.C.No.34 of 2021.

2.The background of the case seems to be that the parties were residing in opposite houses. While so, a conflict arose on account of the conduct of the one person's son with the other person's daughter. Now, the conflict is no more there. The defacto-complainant in one case insisted that unless the other party apologise to them, she will not settle. The other side also apologised to the defacto-complainant. In view of the fact that the parties have moved on and the problem is no more in existence, since, the girl has got married and she is living in separate place and even the mother of the one of the accused is going to shift the house also, there is no point in continuing both the cases.

3.In view of the same, recording the compromise between the parties, I am of the view that, this is a fit case for exercise of power under Section 482 of Cr.P.C., as per the dictum of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in Gian Singh Vs. State of Punjab and Anr. reported in (2012) 10 SCC 303. Accordingly, the cases in C.C.No.85 of 2020 and C.C.No.34 of 2021 on the file of the District Munsif cum Judicial Magistrate Court, Senthurai Taluk, Ariyalur, shall stand quashed and the Sua Motu Transfer Case stands allowed.
