ORDER

The allegation in this case is that one G.Kala (since deceased), the defacto complainant, lodged a complaint on 07.04.2007 stating that while she was in a valid marriage, the accused developed an illicit affair with her, induced her to divorce her husband and promised to marry her. Believing him, she entered into an extra-marital relationship, divorced her husband and thereafter started living with the accused. Subsequently, second accused is said to have developed another affair and disputes among family members also arose.
