dormitory. The second petitioner is also running a hotel business consisting of 13 air-conditioned rooms. There is a common reception, a children's play area and a garden for both the hotels, situated in S.F.No.403, Ooty Main road, Odanthurai Village, Mettupalayam Taluk, Coimbatore District. The petitioners also obtained necessary licenses from all relevant departments and are running the hotels. While being so, the second and third respondents visited the hotel and unnecessarily disturbed their business by inspecting all the rooms and harassing their guests.

4. A perusal of the counter affidavit filed by the second and third respondents and the submission made by the learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) reveals that on 04.06.2024, the respondent police received information from the District Special Branch, Coimbatore. In order to comply the same, they conducted an inspection. They never interfered with the business activities at any point of time. Further, the learned counsel for the petitioner produced the videos showing that the second and third respondents visited their hotel business.
