P. DHANABAL.J.,

This application has been filed by the applicants to frame additional issues. But the applicants have not impleaded all the defendants as parties in this application. As far as framing of issues are concerned, this Court has the power to frame issues at any time before pronouncement of the Judgment. Moreover, the other newly impleaded defendants have also not filed any written statement. Only after filing of the written statement, this Court has to frame additional issues. Therefore, at this stage, the prayer of the applicants cannot be considered.

2. Accordingly, this application is dismissed.
