for the offence under Sections 296(b), 115(2), 118(1) and 351(3) of BNS (Sections 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC), on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail. The FIR registered at the instance of one Lassar indicates that while the defacto complainant and others were playing dice on the public pathway that was questioned by the petitioners, leading to physical attack by these petitioners using a wooden log. The defacto complainant sustained head injuries and was admitted in the hospital as in patient for two days.

2. The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that due to a property dispute, the complaint has been lodged exonerating the incident.

3. This Court finds that the petitioners A2 & A4, the overt act of causing head injuries is attributed to Manisha, who is A3. As far as these petitioners are concerned, they attacked the defacto complainant with their hands and legs.

4. Considering the fact and the nature of offence, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners subject to certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the
