2. The case of the prosecution is that the defacto complainant had borrowed money from the petitioner, for which the petitioner charged exorbitant interest. When the defacto complainant was unable to repay the money with interest, his property was allegedly got registered in the name of the petitioner. In this regard, the defacto complainant is said to have consumed rat poison in an attempt to commit suicide, however, he survived and his statement indicates that the petitioner had grabbed his land for the money advanced, while charging exorbitant interest.

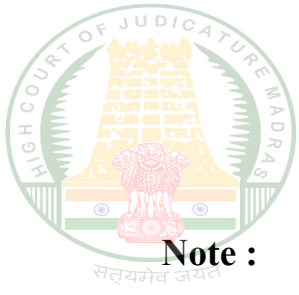

3. Taking note of the gravity of the offence, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
