3. The learned Government Advocate appearing for the 1st respondent would submit that the impugned order under challenge is only a charge memo and the petitioner is bound to submit a reply to the same. Learned Government Advocate would further submit that in stead of submitting a reply to the charge memo, the petitioner has straight away approached this Court seeking for quashing of the same. Learned Government Advocate would submit that if the petitioner is aggrieved against the impugned order, he has to file an appeal as provided under Section 152 of the Tamil Nadu Cooperative Societies Act, and if a reply is given to the Charge Memo, it will be considered and due orders will be passed within a specified time.

At the outset, this Court finds that the order under challenge is an appealable order and hence, the petitioner is directed to file an appeal against the order within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and the respondents shall consider and pass orders on the appeal within a period of six months from the date of receipt of the appeal. However, it is made clear that till the disposal of the appeal by the respondents, no recovery shall be made from the petitioner.
