the petitioner made several allegations as against the 7th respondent, on the ground that the 7th respondent, on receipt of the complaint from the 8th respondent, repeatedly called the petitioner for enquiry. In fact, the earlier complaint lodged by the 8th respondent before the 6th respondent was enquired and closed. That apart, the 8th respondent also approached the jurisdictional Magistrate and sought for direction under Section 156(3) of Cr.P.C and the same was also rejected. Even then, the 7th respondent entertained the complaint lodged by the 8th respondent and issued summons to the petitioner for enquiry. There is absolutely no power for lodging many number of complaints. Further, on receipt of the complaint from the 8th respondent, the 7th respondent called the petitioner for enquiry. Therefore, the 7th respondent had done her duty and as such, the representation of the petitioner to take appropriate action as against the 7th respondent cannot be ordered.

4. In view of the above, this writ petition is devoid of merits and is liable to be dismissed. However, the 7th respondent while summoning the petitioner for enquiry, is directed not to harass the petitioner and to follow the guidelines stipulated for preliminary enquiry or registration of FIR by
