2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner along with other accused were found in possession of 2 kgs of ganja for sale and the same has been seized by the respondent police. Hence, the case.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that it is only one case against this petitioner in the State of Tamil Nadu and the quantity is 2kgs which is of intermediate quantity. He further submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent condition that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prayed for grant of bail to the petitioner.

4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) appearing for the respondent police reiterated the prosecution case and submitted that this petitioner is arrayed as A1 in this case. Though the quantity of contraband seized from the petitioner which is of intermediate quantity, the petitioner is already involved in two other cases, out of which, one case is in the State of Andhra Pradesh, which is relating to 71 kgs of ganja, which is commercial
