2. With consent of both the parties, this petition is taken up for final hearing.

3. The petitioner purchased the subject property vide sale deed No.872 of 1996. The property tax receipts, water tax receipts, etc., stands in the name of the petitioner. The petitioner would submit that the 4th respondent is none other than his daughter-in-law. His son and the 4th respondent were living happily in the subject property. Thereafter, due to difference of opinion, they got separated. Presently, the petitioner's son is living somewhere else.

4. While so, the 4th respondent along with her parents entered the subject property and started living there. They verbally abused the petitioner and attempted to assault him and his wife. Now the petitioner and his wife are living in a rented house. Therefore, the petitioner lodged a complaint before the SHO, J2, Adayar Police Station. Since there was no action in this regard, the petitioner once again made a complaint before the 3rd respondent on 13.11.2019 and
